An Introduction to Epiphany: Showing Forth (The Rt. Rev. Deon Johnson)

The season of Epiphany is a time of revelation and response. The word epiphany means “manifestation” or “showing forth,” and in this season the Church celebrates the many ways God is made known to the world in Jesus Christ. Beginning with the visit of the Magi, Epiphany proclaims that the light of Christ shines beyond boundaries of nation, culture, and expectation. God's salvation is revealed not only to Israel, but to all people.

Throughout Epiphany, the Gospel readings trace moments when Christ's identity becomes clearer: his baptism in the Jordan, the calling of the disciples, signs and wonders, teachings that challenge and transform. These stories remind us that God is often revealed in ordinary places and everyday lives, and that divine light breaks forth in unexpected ways.

Epiphany is also a season of invitation. As Christ is revealed, we are called to respond—to follow, to listen, and to reflect that light in the world. In this season, the Church is reminded of its mission: to bear witness to God's love made flesh and to live as people shaped by that light, seeking justice, practicing mercy, and walking humbly with God. — The Rt. Rev. Deon Johnson

Land Acknowledgment for the Diocese of Missouri (updated 7/2022)

In humility, we recognize and acknowledge that we in the Diocese of Missouri worship and live on the traditional ancestral lands of the Osage Nation, the Illiniwek/Peoria Tribe, the O-Gah-Pah (Quapaw) Tribe, the Otoe-Missouria Tribe, and other First Peoples. We recognize our mutual dependence upon and benefit from this land; we proclaim our solidarity with and our debt to the Peoples who first claimed and improved this land as their home. We acknowledge our complicity in the process of colonization that dispossessed the First Peoples from their ancestral lands. We affirm our commitment to stand with indigenous communities today and henceforth as they seek justice and resist continued threats to their sovereignty and humanity.

We are also cognizant that the history of The Episcopal Church is intertwined with the history of colonialism and slavery in the United States. More than four centuries ago, the first enslaved Africans were brought to the Americas, and two centuries ago enslaved and indigenous persons contributed to the exploration of this state by Lewis and Clark. Our state's history is entangled with both the Missouri Compromise making this state officially a slave state, and the case of Scott v. Emerson that petitioned for Dred and Harriet Scott's emancipation. We acknowledge the tragic legacy of slavery in our diocese, and the blood, sweat, and tears of enslaved people that soak the earth beneath our feet in Missouri. This legacy persists today as we continue to work towards racial justice, equity, liberation, and community, here in Missouri and across The Episcopal Church.

Black History Month Composers Feature:

Today's offertory anthem is There is a balm in Gilead, Spiritual arr. by William Dawson (1899–1990).

William Dawson was born in Anniston, Alabama. A graduate of the Horner Institute of Fine Arts with a Bachelor of Music, Dawson later studied at the Chicago Musical College with professor Felix Borowski, and then at the American Conservatory of Music where he received his master's degree. Early in his career he served as a trombonist both with the Redpath Chautauqua and the Civic Orchestra of Chicago. His teaching career began in the Kansas City public school system, followed by the Tuskegee Institute (now University), where he developed its choir into an internationally renowned ensemble of 100 voices; they were invited to sing at New York City's Radio City Music Hall in 1932 for a week of six daily performances. The choir performed that year at the White House for President Herbert Hoover and at Hyde Park, New York, for future president Franklin D. Roosevelt. In 1946, the choir broke the race barrier at Washington D.C.'s Constitution Hall as they became the first African Americans to perform there. He held the position of Director of the Tuskegee Institute's School of Music until his retirement in 1955.

As a composer, he was recognized for his contributions to both orchestral and choral literature. His best-known works are arrangements of and variations on spirituals. His Negro Folk Symphony of 1934 garnered a great deal of attention at its world premiere by Leopold Stokowski and the Philadelphia Orchestra. The symphony was revised in 1952 with added African rhythms inspired by the composer's trip to West Africa. William Levi Dawson died on May 2, 1990, and is buried at Tuskegee University where his legacy continues through the Golden Voices Choir.

WE HEAR THE SACRED STORIES

THE FIRST READING Please be seated.

Isaiah 58:1-9a

Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God. "Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?" Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers. Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the Lord? Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

THE SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 2:1-12

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God. Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish. But we speak God's wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him"—these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For what human being knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God.

THE GOSPELMatthew 5:13-20

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, O Christ.

Jesus said, "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven. Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

Deacon The Gospel of our Savior.

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: THE NICENE CREED (Expansive Liturgies, ECUSA)

Please stand as you are able.

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
 was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS & OFFERTORY SENTENCES

GATHERING AT CHRIST'S TABLE

OFFERTORY ANTHEM There is a balm in Gilead Spiritual arr. William Dawson (1899–1990)

Lauren Waight, soloist

There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole; there is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin sick soul.

Sometimes I feel discouraged and think my work's in vain, but then the Holy Spirit revives my soul again.

There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole; there is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin sick soul.

If you cannot preach like Peter, if you cannot pray like Paul, you can tell the love of Jesus and say, "He died for all."

There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole; there is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin sick soul.

Don't ever feel discouraged, for Jesus is your friend; and if you lack for knowledge, he'll never refuse to lend.

There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole; there is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin sick soul.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER: The Great Thanksgiving Epiphany

Presider God is with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Holy One, Creator of heaven and earth. You are the Source of light, and by your Word all things came into being. In the fullness of time, you sent Jesus, your Word made flesh, to dwell among us. In him your glory was revealed to the Magi who followed a star, at the waters of the Jordan, and in signs of healing, mercy, and love.

In Jesus, your light shone into the world, and the darkness did not overcome it. Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS Please kneel or stand as you are able.

Based on hymn 304 the Hymnal 1982

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord, Lord God of hosts. Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Please stand or kneel as you are able.

Presider Holy and gracious God, in your infinite love you made us for yourself; and when we turned away, you did not turn away from us. You sent Jesus to share our life, to teach and heal, to gather the lost, and to reveal your love without limit.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Presider We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Remembering Christ's life, death, resurrection, and glorious return, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of Christ, the food and drink of new and unending life. Sanctify us also, that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and be sent into the world to bear Christ's light in love and service.

Unite us to your mission of healing and hope, until that day when all creation is made new, and every nation walks in your light. All this we ask through Jesus Christ, by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Presider As our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The bread is broken; silence is kept.

Presider Alleluia. Christ is the light of the world.

People Thanks be to God, who makes us one in that light.

Presider The Bread is broken, the light is shared.

People We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one Bread.

Presider Alleluia. The Light shines in the darkness,

People And the darkness has not overcome it. Alleluia.

Presider Behold what you are.

People May we become what we receive.

THE INVITATION

Presider Come to this table, you who wait and you who long, you who hope for the dawn, and you who rest in the night.

The Presider may add:

Here the Word is made flesh, and the Light of Christ meets us in bread and wine. Come, for all is ready, it is Christ who invites you to meet him here.

SHARING THE SACRED MEAL

This is Christ's table and all are welcome to be fed. Please follow the movement to the altar; communion will be distributed at the head of the center aisle. Remember to take your purse/personal belongings with you when leaving your seat for communion.

Those participating at home may, if they wish, say this prayer during the time of Communion:

Lord of the Feast, we thank you for gathering us as your people. We call to remembrance the many times we have been fed at your table and we lament our distance now. Be present Lord Jesus as you were present with your disciples, be known to us in the breaking of the bread, and may your Holy Spirit sustain us and all your Church until we can gather together again. We ask this for the sake of your love. Amen.
