Land Acknowledgment for the Diocese of Missouri (updated July 2022)

In humility, we recognize and acknowledge that we in the Diocese of Missouri worship and live on the traditional ancestral lands of the Osage Nation, the Illiniwek/Peoria Tribe, the O-Gah-Pah (Quapaw) Tribe, the Otoe-Missouria Tribe, and other First Peoples. We recognize our mutual dependence upon and benefit from this land; we proclaim our solidarity with and our debt to the Peoples who first claimed and improved this land as their home. We acknowledge our complicity in the process of colonization that dispossessed the First Peoples from their ancestral lands. We affirm our commitment to stand with indigenous communities today and henceforth as they seek justice and resist continued threats to their sovereignty and humanity.

We are also cognizant that the history of The Episcopal Church is intertwined with the history of colonialism and slavery in the United States. More than four centuries ago, the first enslaved Africans were brought to the Americas, and two centuries ago enslaved and indigenous persons contributed to the exploration of this state by Lewis and Clark. Our state's history is entangled with both the Missouri Compromise making this state officially a slave state, and the cases of Scott v. Emerson that petitioned for Dred and Harriet Scott's emancipation. We acknowledge the tragic legacy of slavery in our diocese, and the blood, sweat, and tears of enslaved people that soak the earth beneath our feet in Missouri. This legacy persists today as we continue to work towards racial justice, equity, liberation, and community, here in Missouri and across The Episcopal Church.

WELCOME!

THE GATHERING OF GOD'S PEOPLE

Presider Let us gather ourselves into Christ's presence with a moment of silence.

Moment of silence to open our hearts.

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Presider Blessed be our God.

People For ever and ever.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

Presider Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:

People Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, so that we may truly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE SONG OF PRAISE HYMN 439 (Music is on page 9.)

What wondrous love is this, Wondrous Love

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider God is with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray. O God, in the flaming bush you promised deliverance to your people. In the cross of Jesus you embraced our suffering and pain. As we take up the cross, show us the transforming power of your love, so that we may know the hope of your glory. Amen. *Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (2002) alt;

from Alternative Collects for Years A, B & C of the Revised Common Lectionary 2019, Anglican Church of Canada*

WE HEAR THE SACRED STORIES

THE FIRST READING Please be seated.

Jeremiah 15:15-20

O LORD, you know; remember me and visit me, and bring down retribution for me on my persecutors. In your forbearance do not take me away; know that on your account I suffer insult. Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart; for I am called by your name, O LORD, God of hosts. I did not sit in the company of merrymakers, nor did I rejoice; under the weight of your hand I sat alone, for you had filled me with indignation. Why is my pain unceasing, my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Truly, you are to me like a deceitful brook, like waters that fail. Therefore, thus says the LORD: If you turn back, I will take you back, and you shall stand before me. If you utter what is precious, and not what is worthless, you shall serve as my mouth. It is they who will turn to you, not you who will turn to them. And I will make you to this people a fortified wall of bronze; they will fight against you, but they shall not prevail over you, for I am with you to save you and deliver you, says the LORD. I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless.

Reader Hear what the Holy Spirit is saying to God's People.

People Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM OF THE DAY: 26:1-8 Prayed responsively.

Give judgement for me, O Lord, for I have lived with integrity; *

I have trusted in you and have not faltered.

Test me, O Lord, and try me; *

examine my heart and my mind.

For your love is before my eyes; *

I have walked faithfully with you.

I have not sat with the worthless, *

nor do I consort with the deceitful.

I have hated the company of evildoers; *

I will not sit down with the wicked.

I will wash my hands in innocence, O Lord, *

that I may go in procession round your altar,

singing aloud a song of thanksgiving *

and recounting all your wonderful deeds.

Lord, I love the house in which you dwell * and the place where your glory abides.

THE SECOND READING

Romans 12:9-21

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." No, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Reader Hear what the Holy Spirit is saying to the Church.

People Thanks be to God.

I want to walk as a child of the light, Houston

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE GOSPEL: Matthew 16:21-28

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, O Christ.

Deacon From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things." Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life? For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

Deacon The Gospel of our Savior.

People Praise to you, O Christ.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Canon Tamsen Whistler

Moment for silent reflection

Honorary Canon

THE NICENE CREED (Expansive Liturgies, ECUSA) Please stand as you are able.

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE:

Deacon Let us name before God those for whom we offer our prayers.
The people audibly or silently name those for whom they are interceding.

Leader In today's gospel, Jesus invites us to follow him. As he laid down his life in intercession for the world, let us pray on behalf of people everywhere, saying: Lord, strengthen us.
For all people of faith who struggle to believe in the promise of life amid the clamor of death, let us pray to the Lord.

People Lord, strengthen us.

Leader For the churches who must bear witness to the possibility of taking up the cross and following Jesus. For those who minister in the Name of Christ, especially Sarah, Archbishop of Canterbury; Sean, Presiding Bishop; Deon, our Bishop; Kathie, our dean; and the staff and Chapter of our Cathedral. In our Diocese of Missouri, we pray for the people and ministry of Episcopal Church of the Holy Communion; for Brenda, their Rector; Chester, their Deacon; and Hope, the Rockwell House Campus Ministries Chaplain. In our companion Diocese of Puerto Rico, we pray for St. Luke's Episcopal Medical Center. In the Anglican Communion, we pray for The Church in the Province of the West Indies. In the Armed Forces and Federal Ministries, we pray for our chaplains, military members, their families, and for those serving in Wyoming. Let us pray to the Lord.

People Lord, strengthen us.

Leader For those who are losing their souls in the pursuit of worldly gain, let us pray to the Lord.

People Lord, strengthen us.

Leader For those laying down their lives in faithful dedication to God's call, let us pray to the Lord.

People Lord, strengthen us.

Leader For all we hold close in prayer, who are in need of Christ's healing presence, including the people of Venezuela, the Middle East, Cuba, Ukraine, Russia, Haiti, Sudan, and Libya; our tornado affected neighbors, immigrant and trans siblings; the Epstein family, Noah, Julie, Urlene, Mike, Helen, Michael, Ethan, Mary, Huldah, Dannie, Marjie, Canon Desirée, Marjorie, Adele, Thelma & Raymond, Kathy, Warren; all in prison and their families; those affected by violence and oppression in all forms. Let us pray to the Lord.

People Lord, strengthen us.

Leader For those who are to die this week, and for all who have died, fear including at the hand or in the custody of DHS, all who died in the earthquakes in Venezuela, all slain in Sudan, the Middle East, and Ukraine; Jay Epstein, those 75 lives taken by gun violence in the city of St. Louis in 2026 and all who die at the hand of another, or by their own hand; that they may rise to newness of life. For their safe passage to the life of the world to come, let us pray to the Lord.

People Lord, strengthen us.

Leader For all here present who will one day be judged by God's standards and meet Christ coming in glory, let us pray to the Lord.

People Lord, strengthen us.

All Most high God, your ways are not our ways, yet your ways bear life. Hear our petitions. Pour out on your world the faith to hear your call and the courage to answer it. We ask this in the name of Jesus, who is one with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Deacon Let us confess our sins to God.

Silence is kept.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider Gracious God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

The ministers and people greet one another in the name of the Lord.

GATHERING AT CHRIST'S TABLE

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER: The Great Thanksgiving Eucharistic Prayer B (expansive language text)

Presider God is with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give thanks and praise.

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth, for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever offer this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS 128 Sanctus with revised text

Mathias

Please stand or kneel as you are able.

Presider We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. For in these last days, you sent Jesus to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command O God:

All We remember Christ's death, we proclaim Christ's resurrection, we await Christ's coming in glory;

Presider And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Savior of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, through whom we are acceptable to you, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Savior, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The bread is now broken. Silence is kept.

FRACTION ANTHEM

Presider Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world;

People Have mercy on us.

Presider Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world;

People Have mercy on us.

Presider Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world;

People Grant us peace.

Presider Behold what you are.

People May we become what we receive.

THE INVITATION

Presider The gifts of God for the people of God.

The Presider may add: So come you who have been here often and you who have not been here in a long time. You who are full of faith or full of doubt. You who have tried to follow Jesus and you who have failed. Come, it is Christ who invites us to meet him here.

Communion will be distributed at the head of the center aisle. You are fully communed in bread alone if you prefer.

Remember to take your purse/personal belongings with you when leaving your seat for communion.

Those participating at home may, if they wish, say this prayer during the time of Communion:

Lord of the Feast, we thank you for gathering us as your people. We call to remembrance the many times we have been fed at your table and we lament our distance now. Be present Lord Jesus as you were present with your disciples, be known to us in the breaking of the bread, and may your Holy Spirit sustain us and all your Church until we can gather together again. We ask this for the sake of your love. Amen.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER Please stand as you are able.

Presider God is with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

All Holy and Eternal God, we give you thanks for this feast of your goodness and love. Send us out to share the bread of life with all who hunger for your love; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

THE BLESSING

The Presider blesses the people as a reminder of God's extravagant love.

Presider Go forth into the world in peace; be of good courage; hold fast that which is good; render to no one evil for evil; strengthen the fainthearted; support the weak; help the afflicted; honor everyone; love and serve the Lord, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit; and the blessing of God almighty, the Grace of Christ the Son and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you and remain with you now and always. Amen.
